Washington State Takes Part in National Drive Electric Week with record 13 events across the state

Thousands of electric vehicle drivers and enthusiasts in Washington State will participate in a record number of free events presented by volunteers around the state to highlight the environmental benefits, high performance and cost-savings of electric cars during the week of Sept. 8-16, 2018. At least 13 events are planned as part of the sixth annual National Drive Electric Week.

Washington's events are among more than 300 across the country and around the world in which electric vehicle owners and their supporters will conduct electric car exhibits, ride and drive opportunities and other public events. Washington State is one of the top markets for electric vehicles (EVs) in the country. In addition, Washington Governor Jay Inslee is proclaiming the week of Sept. 8-16, 2018 as Drive Electric Week in Washington.

Plug-in vehicle owners and anyone interested in learning more are invited to take part in the following events, and all are free of charge:
